FAQs Anticipate End of COVID-19 National Emergency, Address Outbreak Period Extensions for COBRA and HIPAA Special Enrollment

"The FAQs leave some open questions—notably, no examples address how the outbreak period's end will affect extended deadlines for filing benefit claims, appeals, and requests for external review; express guidance would be welcomed."

CMS Updates Could Help Employers on Second Round of Drug Cost Reporting

"Employers facing a June 1, 2023, deadline for 2022 prescription drug cost reporting have important new clarification on issues such as plans that cover more than one employer, average monthly premium calculations, and medical plans that carve out prescription drug benefits. That clarification and more come in updated instructions recently released by CMS." Full Article

ACA Preventive Service Requirements Partially Vacated

"The final judgment does not impact all of the ACA preventive service requirements. Specifically, the ACIP (immunizations/vaccines) and the HRSA (women's preventive care recommendations, including the contraceptive coverage requirements and preventive screenings for children) are not changed by this ruling." ## NLRB General Counsel Issues Guidance Memorandum Regarding Severance Agreements

"The General Counsel's memorandum merely reflects the General Counsel's views of the McLaren Macomb decision and is not itself law. However, it does provide a roadmap for how the Board initially will interpret and apply the holding in McLaren Macomb when faced with ULP charges challenging severance agreements." Full Article

States Step in as Telehealth and Clinic Patients Get Blindsided by Hospital Fees

"Along with Colorado and Connecticut, other states that have implemented or are considering limits on facility fees are Indiana, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Ohio, Texas, and Washington. Those measures include collecting data on what facility fees hospitals charge, prohibiting add-on fees for telehealth, and requiring site-neutral payments for certain Medicaid services."
